

PBA sponsored fighter and Paragon MMA enjoy success @ Cage Warriors Unleashed

Congratulations to PBA sponsored Cage Warriors Featherweight Champion Bruce Connors on his decisive victory in the Cage Warriors event in Orlando this past weekend! Connors, still a stranger to the second round due to his TKO's and Submissions, now holds a 6-0 record and continues to prove that he is one of the most exciting and dominant mixed martial arts fighters competing in his weight class. While being congratulated and having the title belt put on him by Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) star Stephan Bonner, Bruce immediately and graciously thanked the PBA and his other sponsors.

Fellow Gracie Barra team members also brought home a Cage Warriors Welterweight title for Mikey Gomez (8-4) and a win by undefeated Kevin "Boricua Fighter" Abrante. Steve Mogerman and Jim Alers also came out on top with what were decidedly two of the most exciting fights of the night. Daniel Lovett will be returning to the ring soon to regain his winning record.

The Cage Warriors event drew in a crowd of more than 8,000 people to the UCF Arena in Orlando, and was hosted by UFC star Stephan Bonner. “Unleashed” proved to be one of the most exciting events in Florida this year, with a 10 fight card that kept the crowd on its feet and played host to some of the greatest MMA fighters in the Southeast Region.

The PBA is honored to sponsor a professional MMA fighter (in and out of the cage) who exemplifies why we fight for the men and women of law enforcement!

As a member of Gracie Barra, I highly encourage everyone (especially LEOs) to get involved in martial arts for your health and officer safety. MMA has helped change my life for the better. However, don’t look for me in the cage anytime soon!
